

Challenges of Democratic Innovations in Europe 23-25 September, Centre for Social Sciences, Budapest

23 September	Author	Paper	Discussant
09.30-09.40	Zsolt Boda	Welcome words
09.40-09.50	Daniel Oross and Sergiu Gherghina	Workshop goals and Participants' Introductions
09.50-10.25	Jean-Benoit Pilet	'Public support for deliberative mini-publics. The role of instrumental motivations'	Dániel Mikecz
10.25-11.00	Dániel Mikecz	Primary election supporters in Hungary	Jean-Benoit Pilet
11.00-11.30	Coffee break
11.30-13.00	Maija Setala, Yanina Welp, Clodagh Harris Jean-Benoit Pilet, Joan Font Fabregas	Roundtable discussion Challenges of Democratic Innovations in Europe	Sergiu Gherghina
13.00-14.30	Lunch
14.30-15.05	Clodagh Harris	Looking to the future? The (non) inclusion of children, young people and future generations in deliberations on climate action: Ireland's Citizens Assembly	Eszter Mátyás
15.05-15.35	Yanina Welp	Participatory constitution-making: Chile in Comparative Context	Clodagh Harris
15.35-16.05	Eszter Mátyás	Party energy: How support for nuclear energy develops based on party sympathy	Yanina Welp

16.15 – 18.45	Guided tour in the city: History and Politics
19.00	Dinner
24 September	Author	Paper	Discussant
09.00-09.35	William Arhip-Paterson	Wear and tear. The gruelling implementation of PB Paris for municipal agents (2014-2020)	Dániel Kovarek
09.35-10.10	Dániel Kovarek	Testing Charter-Manifesto Congruence for Democratic Innovations within Political Parties: Evidence from Hungary	William Arhip- Paterson
10.10-10.45	Sergio Barbosa	The rise of WhatsAppers: Paving digital deliberation in the Global South	Nikolai Gad
10.45-11.15	Coffee break
11.15-11.50	Maija Setala	How can deliberative mini-publics address problems of direct democracy?	Kadir Coban
11.50-12.25	Joan Font Fabregas	Do ideological preferences explain the creation of participatory institutions?	Maija Setala
12.25-13.00	Kadir Coban	Participatory Budgeting Dissemination at Local Level: A Comparative Analysis of Portugal and Turkey	Joan Font Fabregas
13.00-14.30	Lunch
14.30-15.05	Ernesto Cruz Ruiz	Amid Cherry-Picking and Institutionalizing? Towards a Database of Democratic Innovations in Europe	Juan Carlos Rios

15.05-15.40	Ioannis Papadopoulos	Rule of law, process values, and throughput legitimacy in the EU multi-level governance model	Rebecca Gebauer
15.40-16.15	Juan Carlos Rios	The Fate of Participatory and Deliberative Democracy in Colombian Post-Conflict Territories Party energy:	Valgerdur Bjork Palsdottir
16.15 – 17.30	Guided tour of Szamos Chocolate Museum
19.00	Dinner
25 September	Author	Paper	Discussant
09.00-09.35	Rebecca Gebauer, Christoph Niessen, Vincent Jacquet, Min Reuchamps	Thrive, survive, or wither following recommendations in the Ostbelgien permanent citizens dialogue	Ioannis Papadopoulos
09.35-10.10	Valgerdur Bjork Palsdottir and Stefania Oskarsdottir	What do politicians think about democratic innovations? Lessons from Iceland	Ernesto Cruz Ruiz
10.10-10.45	Nikolai Gad and Oscar Barbera	New parties, democratic policy development and digital platforms: Alternativet and Más País	Sergio Barbosa
10.45-11.15	Coffee break
11.15-11.50	Daniel Oross and Paul Tap	Politicians' Opinions on the Hungarian National Consultation as a Deliberative Practice	All participants (no specific discussant)
11.50-12.00	Sergiu Gherghina and Daniel Oross Concluding remarks		